

Celebrating 40 YEARS

RMIT Translating and Interpreting

Since 1975

Call for Presentations

The symposium on:

'The role of Translators and Interpreters in Social Inclusion'

Translators and interpreters provide impartial and objective language services that play a critical role in multilingual and multicultural societies by facilitating communication between community members with language barriers and the wider community. Communication underpins participation. The symposium seeks to recognize this contribution made by the translators and interpreters and seeks to highlight achievements, acknowledge failures and identify needs and future directions in Australia and elsewhere on the occasion of the 40th anniversary of translator and interpreter training at RMIT University, Melbourne, Australia.

Date: Friday, 6 March 2015

Venue: RMIT City Campus, Swanston Street, Melbourne

If you are interested in presenting, please send your topic (in no more than 2 paragraphs) to

translating.interpreting@rmit.edu.au or contact:

Sedat Mulayim, program director at sedat.mulayim@rmit.edu.au

Tel: (03) 99259920